

Title: THE ROLE FOR ASSESSMENT OF PGME PROGRAMS IN COMPETENCY BASED MEDICAL EDUCATION

Abstract: Competency based medical education in PGME is conducted within a complex environment that centers around the residency program and the clinical learning environment. While assessing the learner is a key component in this framework, a robust assessment and performance improvement plan for the program itself is also critical. This talk will discuss how program assessment fits into the framework of an effective PGME system.

James A. Arrighi, M.D.

*Email: jarrighi@acgme-i.org
President and CEO
ACGME-International*